By car

From Hanover, Bremen or Lübeck:

- Turn off the A1 autobahn at the Hamburg-Moofleet junction, toward Hamburg-Billwerder / Hamburg-Moorburg.
- Veer left into Andreas-Meyer-Strasse.
- Follow this road to the bridge Andreas-Meyer-Brücke (approx. 2 km).
- After the bridge, turn left at the second set of traffic lights, into Ausschläger Allee.
- Turn left at the next road, Ausschläger Elbdeich.
- After approx. 100 m, you will see the red building on the right, named e.on Hanse, in which BAXI INNOTECH GmbH has its offices and development laboratory.
- To reach the car parks, drive past the main entrance and take the driveway which leads to our car park building, or the next driveway, which leads to the ground-level car parks.

From Hamburg Central Station (Hauptbahnhof):

From Hamburg Central Station, take the S21 train toward Bergedorf or Aumühle. Get out at the third station, Tiefstack. After leaving the station by going down the stairs and turning right, cross the road called Ausschläger Allee. Beside the bus stop (between the bus shelters) you will find a side entrance to the Tiefstack depot. Ring the bell there to be let in and announce yourself as a visitor of BAXI INNOTECH. The offices of BAXI INNOTECH are on the 4th floor in the main building.

From the airport:

- By taxi: approx. 30 min. (up to 50 min. in the rush hour).
- By public transport: duration approx. 40 – 45 minutes.
The „Hamburg Airport (Flughafen)“ railway station is directly in front of the terminals and can be reached quickly and easily. Take the S1 train from the airport (one leaves every 10 minutes) toward Hamburg Central Station (Hauptbahnhof). Get out at Hamburg Central Station (reached in approx. 20 minutes) and change to the S21 train toward Bergedorf or Aumühle (platform opposite); get out at the third station, Tiefstack. After leaving the station by going down the stairs and turning right, cross the road called Ausschläger Allee. Beside the bus stop (between the bus shelters) you will find a side entrance to the Tiefstack depot. Ring the bell there to be let in and announce yourself as a visitor of BAXI INNOTECH. The offices of BAXI INNOTECH are on the 4th floor in the main building.
